

Idaho Novus Classical Academy School-Parent Compact

Our mission is to train the minds and improve the hearts of students through a classical, content-rich curriculum that emphasizes virtuous living, traditional learning, and civic responsibility.

Our vision is to form future citizens who uphold the ideals of our country's founding and promote the continuation of our American experiment—through a classical, great books curriculum designed to engage the student in the highest matters and the deepest questions of truth, justice, virtue, and beauty.

Our core virtues:

- Courage: Be Brave
- Courtesy: Be Kind and Respectful
- Honesty: Always Tell the Truth
- Perseverance: Never Give Up
- Self-government: Practice Self Control
- Service: Help others

We are committed to the academic and behavioral success of every student. We believe that this is accomplished through partnership between the school, families, and students as outlined below.

School Responsibilities

Idaho Novus Classical Academy will:

- Provide a high-quality American classical curriculum and qualified instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment
- Hold parent-teacher conferences at least twice annually
- Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress: quarterly report cards, test scores in the Fall and Spring, access to the PowerSchool portal
- Provide parents reasonable access to staff via email or in person meetings
- Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's education
- Hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school's participation in Title I-A, to explain the requirements and parent rights, and to provide an opportunity for feedback.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Reviewing the Family Handbook
- Monitoring attendance
- Making sure homework is completed when assigned
- Attending open house and parent-teacher conferences

- Attending school and community events as able
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school and responding, as appropriate

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will:

- Do my homework every day and ask for help when I need to
- Always do our best to reflect the core virtues and live by the school pledge:

I will learn the true, I will do the good, I will love the beautiful.

- Abide by the Idaho Novus Classical Academy Honor Code:

Idaho Novus Classical Academy students strive to be virtuous in conduct, seek to grow in scholarship and learning, and pursue a commitment toward civic responsibility. Idaho Novus Classical Academy students will not lie, cheat, or steal, and will discourage others from such actions.
